

Cookie Policy

Last updated: 01 September 2025

This Cookie Policy explains how we use cookies and similar technologies on our website. By continuing to browse or use our site, you agree to the use of cookies as described in this policy.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites function properly, enhance your browsing experience, and provide information to the site owners.

How we use cookies

We use cookies to:

- Ensure the website functions correctly and securely.
- Improve your browsing experience by remembering your preferences.
- Analyse website traffic and performance so we can improve our services.
- Support marketing and communications relevant to our products and services.

Types of cookies we use

1. Strictly Necessary Cookies – Required for the site to operate (e.g. navigation, access to secure areas).
2. Performance & Analytics Cookies – Help us understand how visitors interact with the website (e.g. page views, traffic sources).
3. Functionality Cookies – Remember your choices (e.g. language settings).
4. Targeting / Advertising Cookies – May be used to deliver relevant ads or limit how often you see them.

Managing Cookies

You can control and/or delete cookies as you wish. Most browsers allow you to block or delete cookies through the settings. Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of our website.
